This is nothing more than a pathetic, transparent attempt at voter suppression. So-Called conservatives in this country are nothing more than regressive and repressive. This is a last ditch effort by the regressive forces in this country to desperately hold on to the power that they don't have a mandate for. The only reason they are still in power is because of voter suppression and gerrymandering. The vast majority of people in the United States want equality and progress and human rights. They don't represent most of the people in this country, even the ones that vote for them. They're a sad remnant of a bygone, Jim Crow day that this country should never revisit. Calling this pathetic is being polite. This is nothing more than disgusting.
