

Submitter:

Moriah Frazier

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

As Oregon residents live mostly in rural areas, going in person for voting is not feasible. For rural communities who are low income/ single income families they cannot afford to leave work for a day to stand in line and vote.

The mail in ballot makes voting more equitable and super accessible for all communities in Oregon.