

Submitter:

Patrick Shuff

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Switching to in person voting will cost the state more money. This bill does not address extra tax dollars to cover the additional cost and the state budget does not have extra capital to cover the additional cost.