

Submitter:

Sammie Nolan

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon's vote-by-mail system is efficient and cost-effective, ranking lowest in the 2024 Cost of Voting Index. Repealing it would result in 4.2 million people needing to vote in person, creating immense logistical and financial challenges. Has Senator David Brock Smith addressed the need for increased polling facilities and the significant cost implications, which are currently unaccounted for in the bill?"