

Submitter:

David Freitag

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I enthusiastically support this common sense bill (SB 210)! In-person voting on election day, by citizens, is the logical approach to ensuring election integrity and restoring public confidence in election results. Absentee voting should be the exception, but may be necessary under some well controlled situations.

Thank you,
David Freitag