

Submitter:

Karie Eichenberger

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

The GOP doesn't like that democratic voter turnout is higher when vote by mail is an option. Many people do not have employers that allow time off to vote so they either have to take unpaid time off (if that's even allowed at their work) or just don't vote. Which is really what the GOP prefer - less voter turnout.