

Submitter:

John Detweiler

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I support this bill. The problem with the current system is that there appears to be too many ways to cheat. I have not personally seen any instances of cheating or fraud; but too many people think that there is cheating/fraud and perception all too often becomes reality undermining trust in elections. As I read the bill, it would eliminate most, if not all, ways to cheat.