

Submitter:

Megan Reilly

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

All states should be moving toward vote by mail, not away from it. The more voters that participate in our democracy the better it will be. Vote by mail is easy and convenient results in higher voter turnout. There is no need to set up and staff polling places. Voters can do their research with ballot in hand, making it easier to make informed decisions.