

Throwing out the gains in electoral turnout, accessibility and fairness across all class and ethnicity, both rural and urban by humoring far right misinformation designed to disenfranchise voters is pure folly.