I believe voting by mail is convenient, safe, and encourages civic engagement. I value being able to go through my ballot and do research in the pamphlet or checking news sources as I go. I vote in all sections of my ballot because I have the ability to get informed over time.

My mother once spilled tea on her signed ballot envelope. She mailed it in and was later contacted because her signature was blurred and her ballot needed to be verified. We have both felt even more confident in this system ever since. Voting by mail is pro-democracy, pro-workers, pro-participation. Keep it.
