SB210

It is extremely important that we make voting more accessible, not less accessible. Oregon's mail-in ballot system has worked extremely well for decades. Seniors, people with disabilities, people who live rurally, and people who are busy working and raising children all greatly benefit from the convenience of mail-in ballots. Changing this voting system would greatly reduce voter access, which I suspect is the reason this bill was written. This is yet another way that unethical politicians are attempting to push through their agendas and try to shut out the opinions of the citizens of this country. I strongly oppose this bill.
