

Submitter:

Wayne Gibson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I am against in-person voting as the standard method for conducting an election. As long as proper identification is required for voter registration, requiring in person voting is not necessary. There is no evidence that I'm aware of that indicates voter fraud is a big problem. As politicians, spend your time on more useful and critical issues.