

Submitter:

Tom Benham

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

To restrict voting to in-person only is a ploy by the right to tamp down the vote of veterans, people with disabilities, low income citizens, people with difficulty to physically access voting stations for any number of legitimate reasons. Voting is a right of all Americans and should not be curtailed in any way.