SB210

I strongly oppose switching to in person voting in Oregon. Vote by mail increases turnout and makes it far easier to cast votes, which is why conservatives want to get rid of it. We don't have the infrastructure for in-person voting, and moving to it would be a waste of money while benefiting nobody except Republican politicians who perform better when votes are suppressed. People with fewer resources and less access to transportation would be the most disenfranchised by this change.
