SB210

I oppose this bill. Ever since moving to Oregon in 1997 from states that vote in person, I have been impressed with the way Oregon votes. The voters guides and the printed ballots provide information and time to make educated decisions. The pro and con arguments are valuable as a way to learn about different viewpoints before deciding. I enjoy how people discuss candidates and measures and the way we have time to study the issues before voting. Our system works well and there is no legitimate reason to change it. Oregon should reject laws and practices intended to disenfranchise people and put up obstacles to voting. We do not need to be part of the regressive movement intent on taking away participatory and civil rights.
