

Submitter:

Megan Chambers

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Mail-in voting is a valuable tool to enable seniors, the disabled, those who cannot get off of work, and more to exercise their democratic rights. There is no evidence to suggest that voter fraud is a serious issue in this state (or any other state in the U.S. for that matter). Forcing people back into in person voting is thinly veiled voter suppression.