

Submitter: Jennifer Abele

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Oregon has one of the highest voter turnout rates in the country thanks to the vote by mail system. Ending it would result in a large drop in turnout, as shown by states like Texas that require in-person voting, that has one of the lowest rates. Voting by mail allows more voters to participate. It should not be undone.