Vote by mail has been a convenient way to vote in Oregon. While I did initially miss going to the polling place and seeing my neighbors and friends, I realized that I could do that anytime, and voting by mail was so much better all the way around. I do not agree with the national position of all vote by mail ballots must be received by the end of the actual voting day. It's unrealistic to assume the USPS is capable. Vote by mail is progressive concept and it's a great way to prevent voter fraud. I'd be unhappy if it went away. Linda Bye
