

Submitter:

Eloise Holdship

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

In person voting goes against accessibility for a large majority of Oregonians. To take away mail-in voting is to suppress the voice of the disabled, overtime working, rural, and/or impoverished Oregonians. It is a barrier to the right to vote that has bipartisan implications. Full stop.