

Submitter:

Megan Triggs

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Making elections less accessible for the working class and more burdensome for the government makes no sense. Voting in person is archaic in 2025. We sign legal documents that tie us to home and car purchases online. Unless every person is provided transportation and paid days off by the government voting in person is not equitable