

Submitter: Jack Hobbs

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Voting by mail is a proven system to increase turnout and provide representation to people unable or unwilling to stand in line for hours at a ballot location. To repeal this system would be a massive step backwards. The evidence to suggest mail-in voting engenders fraud is flimsy at best, and fabricated at worst.