I have lived long enough to have experience voting in person AND vote by mail. I prefer vote by mail because at the end of a long work day the thought of having to extend my "put on a nice face and smile while standing in line to vote" is simply too much. I would rather go on home, take my shoes off, put my feet up and say "my vote is just one vote".

Vote by mail allows me to take my shoes off and put my feet up when I get home at the end of my work day and vote.
