

Submitter:

Elizabeth Carpenter

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Vote by mail is the most inclusive method of voting. In person voting would disproportionately affect people with disabilities, the elderly, the immunocompromised, and those with busy schedules or no car. Furthermore, registered voters should not need photo id, as they have already registered. This seems like another step that would make voting more difficult for underprivileged people.