SB210

I am writing to oppose SB210. This bill encourages voter suppression. The voting system has been working effectively in Oregon for years. Currently, our system of voting allows all voters convenient and equal access to voting. This encourages citizens to vote. It couldn't be easier. Requiring in person voting on Election Day will result in fewer citizens turning out to vote because it doesn't accommodate for disability, work schedule limitations, childcare needs, and equal access for all voters. Supporting SB 210 is a huge mistake.
