I have been voting by mail for however many years it has been that way in Oregon. No problems, easy to do; easy for my daughter who travels a lot, was in college and away from our home. There is no problem with this voting method. It benefits everyone: seniors, poor people (transportation to and from voting centers), working people, everyone. This is politics at its worst trying to stop mail in voting. Seriously, I'm disappointed in your lack of democratic values.
