

Submitter:

Bailey Beckwith

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting in person is disruptive to daily happenings when vote by mail has been a long-standing and trusted process. In person voting is meant as a means to limit those who can actually vote due to the procedures conducted during in-person voting. I oppose this measure due to its discriminatory nature and unnecessary proposition.