SB210

I am a 100% disabled Vietnam Veteran. I was born in Medford Oregon in 1948. This is my first letter written on behalf of any state legislation. I oppose the attempt to deprive me the right to mail in my ballot. The current tearing down of the support of the poor or disabled is supported by DOGE but Oregon must fight to preserve our current rights. The work to take away our mail in voting rights smells of corruption. Stop. Keep Oregon an independent state.
