Mail in voting is the only option for many Americans. My father is paralyzed from the chest down and my mother is going blind. Neither can drive and have to rely on very unreliable transportation systems that often cancel at the last minute. My elderly grandparents have mobility issues and cannot stand for more than a few minutes at a time, let alone try to get into cars and drive. Mail in voting is a reliable system that makes voting possible for everyone, regardless of physical limitations. Taking away mail in voting punishes people who are not able-bodied. My family members are hardworking citizens who deserve the same rights and opportunities as everyone else, especially when it comes to having their voice heard through voting.
