

Submitter:

Zachary Streblow

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Making in person voting a requirement for conducting elections in Oregon would be detrimental to millions of Oregonians. It is often too difficult to attend in person voting, thus this measure would result in the silencing of many Oregonians. I whole heartedly oppose this measure and believe it would be damaging for the democratic election system in Oregon.