

Submitter:

Emily Johnson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

In person voting limits voting for people who work full time, can't drive, have complicated family situations or illness, the list goes on and on. Voting by mail broadens access which is always essential if you are trying to making voting accessible and representative.

I strongly oppose making voting in person mandatory.