Mail in voting is wonderful. It has made me a better-informed voter, as I am able to sit down with my ballot and voter's guide to review each measure and candidate in detail and do additional research as needed. Because there is flexibility in timing, it lowers the barrier to entry for those of us who are disabled, can't drive, work long hours, have family responsibilities, or otherwise can't easily make it to a polling place on voting day. I strongly opposed this measure!
