

Submitter:	Kathryn McIntyre
On Behalf Of:
Committee:	Senate Committee On Rules
Measure, Appointment or Topic:	SB210

I am deeply concerned about the potential for voter disenfranchisement. Eliminating mail-in voting would significantly reduce voter participation, particularly among those who rely on it due to work, health, or other commitments. Studies have consistently shown that voter fraud is exceedingly rare, and restricting access to voting could undermine public confidence in our elections. It is important to focus on strengthening our democratic process by making voting more accessible, not less.