

Submitter:

Jill Ross

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon's mail-in voting has worked and been secure for as long as it has been in-place. Mail-in voting allows people who cannot get that time off work, infirm (such as older people or retired veterans), or who cannot otherwise physically get to a polling place to exercise their constitutionally-mandated right to vote. This is an obvious ploy to restrict voting rights.