

Submitter: Erik Skybak

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

I strongly oppose laws abolishing mail in voting. Mail in voting promotes voter participation, central to any democracy, and there is no substantial evidence of voter fraud with mail in voting. It is simply being used as a tool by republicans to discourage votes from inner-city and poor voters, who typically vote for democrats and face challenges getting to voting locations.