

Submitter:

Phillip Marcy

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Access to voting is critical for free and fair elections. People who work regular hours, have disabilities, are aging, or infirm cannot be expected to make their way to a polling place reliably on a single day where long wait times may occur. The mail in voting program has been an overwhelming success in this state and the opponents of it are trying to undermine public faith in the democratic process.