

Submitter:

Andrew Nelson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Why would the state backslide into such a regressive form of voting? Oregon is often touted as a leading example of the immense impacts afforded with mail in voting. The ability to provide a way for all voters to show up and show out. There is simply no justifiable reason to eliminate mail in voting in favor of in-person voting the day of.