

Submitter:

Sue Mandeville

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1186

The police do not need more power. They can be dangerous and need public oversight and guide rails to keep them protecting the community, rather than lording it over the community. As it is, the police are an opaque agency and let's not forget the police unions that are too powerful.

This bill stinks. Vote no.