Mail-in voting has given many voters, including my husband and me, the opportunity to actually be more involved and more informed than ever before. We first encountered mail-in voting in California and were pleased to find that Oregon has total mail-in voting. We take the time to read all materials sent us and work together to choose what we think is best for the city, the state, the country, and ourselves. Especially because it works so well, it would be an unethical addressing of something that works.
