

Submitter: Claire Luttmer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

This would disproportionately burden hourly workers who do not get paid time off. Elections are always a Tuesday, a work day. It is not a paid holiday. If Oregon republicans want to win elections they should run on a platform that actually resonates with voters- they should not try to make it harder to vote. A hearty FUCK NO on this from this Oregon Voter. I have voted by mail my ENTIRE LIFE. You cannot re-can these worms.