Measure, Appointment or Topic:	SB210

I am fully opposed to this measure. Having mail in ballots ensures that more Oregonians will use their voices, and do so safely. The point is to make sure as many people vote, not to limit it to those who are ambulatory. This is just another attempt to try to put the Republican's finger on the scale to weigh things in their direction. Play fairly, or do not play at all. It was never in question until this questionable administration
