

Submitter:

Margarita Fortner

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I can't fathom what possible benefit or reason there might exist to move away from our current mail-in system to an in-person one. It seems to me that making voting more difficult only works to one political party's advantage while doing nothing to advance democracy.