Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Vote-by-mail allows me to be a more active and informed voter. I can take the time to thoroughly research candidates' qualifications, and vote in the comfort of my own home without missing work. I oppose SB 210 as the blatant attempt at voter suppression that it is. Vote-by-mail is effective, accessible, and secure. Senator David Brock Smith should be ashamed of himself for kowtowing to an illegal executive order that infringes on the rights of states to choose how to conduct elections.
