

Submitter:

JoAnn Vrilakas

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting by mail is demonstrably effective in increasing voter turnout. It has been shown to not Increase fraud. Undoing this option is clearly designed to disenfranchise some voters to the benefit of Republican candidates, who should win based on the merits of their positions not on shady anti-democracy tactics. Choose ethical behavior and keep mail in voting.