

Submitter:

Gillis Fleener

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

This is an incredibility bad idea. We have been voting by mail for years. Many people don't have access or can stand in line in bad weather of arrange transportation to vote in a booth. It seems strange that a republican would want to change a very easy and secure way to vote from home