

Submitter:

Michael Norgang

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon optional Mail in voting has been a tradition and secure and effective method of collecting a broad and accurate public consensus. In person only voting reduces turnout and stifles discourse. By all means improve the registration process with more consistent and stringent verifications but there's nothing wrong with the mail-in process itself.