Members of the Committee,

I am writing in opposition to SB 210. Oregon's system of voting by mail works, as its success has demonstrated for several decades now. Requiring in-person voting on election day will simply cost the state and citizens of Oregon money and time while contributing nothing of value to us. Because it also includes a voter ID requirement, this bill is a thinly veiled attempt to prevent eligible Oregonians from voting by creating unnecessary barriers under the pretense of preventing electoral fraud, which is extremely rare.
