I'm a 100% disabled veteran, who enjoys my rite to vote by mail. I just got my Real ID, so I renewed my voter's registration. Voting by mail allows me to vote in the comfort of my home. Not standing in a line at a polling station, causing me pain. I have enough pain in my life. If you want to steal my vote come to my house. Don't be a sneak thief, trying to claim voter integrity.
