SB210

Those of us who have jobs and don't get election days off appreciate vote by mail. Opposition comes from Republicans who don't need to work because their money works for them (and they already have more money than they will ever be able to spend). Their preferred candidates often can't win elections on the issues, so they cheat by making voting more difficult for those who aren't rich. Don't assist their unconstitutional and undemocratic agenda. Please vote no.
