

Submitter:

Jason Rush

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is nothing more crucial in a democracy than the right to vote. We should be removing barriers to voting, not adding them. There is no evidence of wide spread view fraud, and this proposal would make voting more difficult for legitimate voters, reducing view turnout, in order to prevent an imagined problem.