

Submitter:	Quentin Lensink
On Behalf Of:	American rights
Committee:	Senate Committee On Rules
Measure, Appointment or Topic:	SB210

There's no good reason to ban a system of voting that's been effective for over 20 years.

There's been no evidence to support the idea that mail in ballot voting is less secure.

This is a blatant overreach of the current administration and an attempt at voter suppression.